445 1863 On one side, C. S. A. J. Davis, Richmond, Va., 1863. On the reverse, State Rights; One 1863 Cent.; C. S. A.; Liberty. These words and letters are stamped on in an extremely irregular manner and struck on a piece of lead made from a bullet, and the party from whom I received this collection says he has reason to believe there were only three pieces struck

446 1869 United States of America. Rev. V, in a Wreath. "In God we Trust." A little circulated

447 1869 Set of Standard Silver Pieces, 50, 25 and 10 Cents in three varieties, making nine pieces. Plain edge. Proofs. Very rare; price at the Mint, $15

448 1870 Another in all respects, excepting date, precisely similar. 9 pieces

449 1872 Beautiful Proof Dollar. Ob. Thirteen Stars over the head of Liberty seated, holding a Liberty Cap with a small pole. On the globe on which the Goddess is seated is the word, Liberty; behind are two Flags, one of which has the peculiar number of Nineteen Stars, but for what reason I am unable to state. Rev. "United States of America," under which in a wreath is the inscription, &c., "Commercial Dollar—420 Grs. 900 fine." Between Commercial and Dollar are two cornucopias crossed. "God our Trust" on a scroll which unites the ends of the wreath. There were only six of these dollars issued, as I learn from the Boston Numismatic Journal, which also infers that the dies were destroyed. There is so slight a crack in in the die that it can only be seen in a certain light, and this is doubtless one of the rarest patterns known.
